

ASSUMPTION COLLEGE

CAREER DEVELOPMENT & INTERNSHIP CENTER

Employer Recruiting Policy

The Assumption College Career Development & Internship Center (CDIC) builds and maintains relationships with employers to connect students to internship and full-time job opportunities. CDIC manages an online job-board, Assumption Career Connection, offering free job and internship posting and also provides opportunities for employers to connect with student through the On-Campus Recruiting (OCR) Program. Recruiting opportunities and our job board can be accessed at <http://career.assumption.edu>.

Employers who recruit at Assumption College, including, but not limited to, posting jobs on Career Connection and participating in career fairs and the OCR Program must agree to the following policies.

1. Organizations and their representatives will abide by all local, federal, and state laws.
2. Organizations and their representatives will maintain equal employment opportunity (EEO) compliance. Students and alumni will be accepted and assigned to job opportunities and otherwise treated without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, veteran status or disability, as well as other classifications protected by applicable state or local laws.
3. Organizations and their representatives will abide by the Assumption College Conduct Code.
4. This mission of each employer and the job itself will not conflict with the College's Mission.
5. Organizations and their representatives will post only opportunities that require college-educated candidates.
6. All posted internships will meet the NACE definition and guidelines for internships
7. Employment conditions will not require candidates to pay a fee, purchase supplies, invest money, or solicit products/services on campus.
8. Employers will have available positions or anticipate the likelihood of positions to become available.
9. Third-party recruiters as defined by NACE's Principles for Professional Practice for Career Services and Employment Professionals will not participate in career fairs, campus interviews or any other on-campus recruiting event.
10. Third-party recruiters will disclose the name of employer it represents to the CDIC for each job posting submitted for approval. These "recruiters will disclose to students the names(s) of the client, or clients, that the third-party recruiter is representing and to whom the students' credentials will be disclosed."
11. Third-party recruiters that charge fees to students will not be permitted to post jobs.
12. Organizations that choose to participate in the OCR Program are encouraged to follow our guidelines regarding offers and acceptances.
 - a. Students who receive offers during the summer will be given until October 1 or two weeks to consider an offer, whichever is later.
 - b. Students who receive offers in the fall semester will be given until December 1 or two weeks to consider an offer, whichever is later.
 - c. Students who receive offers in the spring semester will be given until April 1 to or two weeks to consider an offer, whichever is later.
 - d. Employers will communicate interview decisions to students within a reasonable timeframe.
13. Employers offering commission-only internship/job opportunities are not permitted to participate in the OCR program.
14. Recruiting for door to door sales positions are not permitted through the job board, OCR or campus recruiting events.

In addition to the guidelines outlined above, all organizations and their representatives who recruit at the College must abide by the National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE) Principles for Professional Practice for Career Services and Employment Professionals.
